To whom it may concern,

I think this issue has dragged on for too long. I hope that you are considering the current marketplace, and view practices of other companies such as AOL Time Warner, in the same light--in fact, I'm more worried about their domination of the Media industry than Microsoft. Please allow the settlement to go through, in today's EXTREMELY competitive marketplace, this trial has already hurt Microsoft a lot. Let's bring a close to events from 2001.
